

Garmong President Receives Human Relations Award

September 18, 2014

Terre Haute Human Relations Commission Executive Director Jeff Loric (left) presents Garmong President Ralph Wagle with a Human Relations award.

Garmong President Ralph Wagle received a Human Relations award at the City of Terre Haute's Human Relations Commission dinner held September 18 at the Ohio Building. The award recognized Wagle's determined focus toward ensuring young people have educational opportunities placed before them locally through established scholarships and internship programs, and more specifically for his instrumental role in the development of the Vigo County School Corporation's Diversity Internship Program in 2008.

Wagle with Vigo County School Superintendent Danny Tanoos and Tanoos' wife Claudia, Vice President of the Terre Haute Economic Development Corporation. Superintendent Tanoos was also recognized with a Human Relations award.

Additional award recipients included School Superintendent Danny Tanoos, Jeanine and David Utterback, Joy Sacopulos, Vigo County Homes for Children, Project Search and Dario Stephens. Congratulations to all!

